HELLO wonderful Koinonia Family!

It has sure been a long time a coming, but we WILL be having K96 this October and we WILL be expecting our ALMIGHTY GOD to do great and amazing things Amen and Amen!!

Please be continually praying for Bridgette, Angie, the K96 Team, and the new participants GOD will bring.

Have you been asking the LORD who HE would have you sponsor on this K96 weekend? That is how the ministry continues to grow, and we all want Koinonia of Montana to continue to thrive!!

I realize not everyone will be on team, but please know there are many upcoming opportunities for the K Community to gather and fellowship together. I am hoping to see MANY come together in the coming months. So, I encourage your attendance at the upcoming gatherings. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend:

Hello my beautiful K-family!

I hope this article finds you and your family healthy and joyful. This has been such a strange 15 months that all of us have been living in. Our world is in turmoil, we have been forced to live a life that I personally never dreamed imaginable, and kindness seems to be getting harder and harder to find.

Despite all the craziness that is going on, there is a silver lining on our horizon...K-96 IS FINALLY HAPPENING!!! When I first heard this, I will admit that it was hard to believe it was true. After all, this will be the FOURTH time that we will be starting to prepare for a weekend. My feet have been dragging and I have been having some intense conversations with God. Somedays I feel ready to conquer and complete the many tasks I have ahead of me while other days the voice in my head tells me to not spend too much time or energy because come September it will probably be postponed again. Of course, I know that the voice is Satan trying to detour me from following through because he is afraid of what a powerful weekend we have in store for us.

So, K-family, if you feel like you are being tested, if things are not going the way you imagined, if you are struggling, know that you are not alone. And know that we will prevail and have one the best Koinonia weekends imaginable!

I will be making phone calls and getting in touch with Team in case anything has changed. If you know that you can no longer be on the weekend, that's okay-a lot has changed, and I know that you will be praying for us. If you were not on Team before and would like to be, PLEASE reach out to me via text, phone, or Facebook.

I will be sending letters out the closer we get to the big weekend. Please know that I am praying for all of you. If anyone needs anything, please reach out to me. I love you all and cannot wait to see everyone's amazing faces.

"We can do all things in Him who gives us strength!!!"

Love,

Bridgette

Hello my beloved Koinonians!

It's been a while and lots has happened in m my life. I'm very blessed to announce that April 30th this year I married my best friend, Jeremy Shull.

I'm so excited that we finally get to get together again this fall for K96! I've missed you all so much! It'll be 2 years since the last Koinonia so I hope everyone that is able will make it out to the team meetings, Team Sending Forth, Mananitas and the Ultreya! Don't miss out on palanka parties either!

This season of separation has been a hard one and we all need each other to share in our sorrows and our joys! God's word says, whatever happens to one member happens to all. If one suffers, everyone suffers. If one is honored, everyone rejoices. You are the body of the Anointed One, and each of you is a unique and vital part of it. 1 Corinthians 12:26-27 TPT. Please be praying for our awesome leader Bridgette and God's K96 team. EACH OF YOU are a unique and vital part of K96! I know God has something big for each one of us this fall! The best is yet to come!

P.S. please be praying for Bridgette and I and the awesome journey for K96 and K97.

Love you

Angie Shull K73
